

Communication English II (Hayashi Class)

Micro Debate Demonstration

TOPIC: High school students should join after-school clubs.

A: Affirmative Side 肯定側 B: Negative Side 否定側 C: Judgment 審判

(Constructive Speech 立論 1 minute)

A: I strongly believe that high school students should join after-school clubs because it is important for them to learn how to work with others.

(その理由)

B: I don't believe that high school students should join after-school clubs because they need more time to study and relax at home.

(その理由)

A / B: 1 minute thinking time

(Attack Speech 反駁 30 seconds)

A: You said they need more time to study and relax at home, but that is not true,

(相手の意見の繰り返し or まとめ)

because they have enough time to study and relax after joining clubs and day-offs.

(その理由)

B: You said it is important for them to learn how to work with others but that is not true,

(相手の意見の繰り返し or まとめ)

because we can learn how to work with others through school life. For example, they have lunch with their friends.

(その理由)

(Judgment 判定 1 minute)

C: I think (that) A's opinion is better because it is important for high school students to learn how to work with others.

(相手の意見の繰り返し or まとめ)

If they don't join clubs and have too much time, they don't study but play video games and so on.

(その理由)

Therefore, the winner is A.
